

An Invitation to The Scent Academy

An illustration of a woman with long, dark, wavy hair, wearing a green off-the-shoulder top with a floral pattern and a crown of pink and yellow flowers. She is holding a red perfume bottle with a gold cap and a label that reads 'THE SCENT ACADEMY DRAMA QUEEN'. The background features yellow floral patterns.

I'm delighted to welcome Melanie Jane, Founder of The Scent Academy and Graduate of The Grasse Institute for Perfumery, to share with us the art of scent blending.

Venture on an odyssey through scent and learn how to blend your favourite essential oils to create your own personalised fragrance to take home.
